Basket Bulletin

Highlights

Our founder is celebrating her birthday this month. She enjoys working with the volunteers, meeting with new organizations, networking to spread the word about Alleluia Baskets and most of all hearing about and seeing the smiles of the recipients.

She filled the first basket when she was much younger as a Girl Scout for a senior citizen, little did she know she would be serving tens of thousands. She is full of compassion, energy, love and excited to continue the mission-providing joy and building community. Let's wish her a Happy Birthday!!

Community Partners

Sts. Joachim and Ann Care Service

Alleluia Baskets is honored to work with Sts. Joachim and Ann Care Service located in St. Charles, MO.

This relationship began 15 years ago when both organizations were in smaller facilities and working with fewer volunteers.

It goes beyond providing Easter baskets for their food pantry that serves nearly 300 families each week. The Care Service reaches out to Alleluia Baskets when they receive donations more suitable for the baskets. They know Alleluia Baskets will make sure they go into baskets for children to be filled with joy. The coordinators have been wonderful to work with and have expressed much gratitude and appreciation for the Easter baskets. In a recent conversation, it was mentioned how we work together to provide dignity for the individuals. These words are in Alleluia Baskets' mission statement and hold true to the work done for the community by both organizations. We look forward to continuing the relationship with The Care Service in the future serving the families and individuals who are most in need.
