Basket Bulletin

Highlights

The month of November was surely a time to reflect on the giving spirit of those who support the organization and give freely from their heart.

We received a donation from Roba Financial who came to help us one day with many hours of preparing items to be placed in the Easter baskets.

An anonymous donation came in with a company match totaling $2000.00

We appreciate the donation of the deposit to the Trigg Banquet Center for the Music Trivia, from a family, who also chose to remain anonymous.

Principia School and many members of the Cottleville Weldon Spring Chamber donated over 300 lbs of candy after the call went out to the community. This will save thousands of dollars when we begin filling Easter baskets.

O'Fallon Fire District donated three large black bags of stuffed animals.

Alleluia Baskets continues to be blessed with monetary and in-kind donations, prayers and positive messages. We thank you for all you do to help us bring tens of thousands of smiles to those who need them most during the Easter season. IF we could highlight every moment of the day, we would. We thank you for your giving hearts and working hands.

Community Partners

Cool Campbell Crafters

Cool Campbell Crafters is an amazing group of talented ladies who create these outstanding items for the Easter baskets. The group first came to Alleluia Baskets in February 2023 and fell in love with the mission and desired to help in any way possible. Linda Heidger graciously delivers the hand crafted items filled with lots of love and prayer to the location in O'Fallon. In addition to creating beautiful items with her friends, Linda has spearheaded the collection of new or like new tennis shoes for the GotSneakers campaign. We have sent in over 10 large bags of shoes and are anxious to share the amount of funds raised. Shoes are currently being collected until further notice. They can be dropped off during open hours (found on the website). Alleluia Baskets is delighted to partner with Linda and the Cool Campbell Crafters of Dardenne Prairie. The excitement of the new items arriving is always a pleasure.
