Basket Bulletin

Why We Serve

"The baskets are customized for the age and gender of kids. Which makes them special! We have been so happy with the contents of the baskets...we can't think of anything to change."
- Ann R. at Great Circle

Meet the Volunteer

Mary DiMercurio

Mary has been a part of Alleluia Baskets from almost the first day. She was teaching at the same time as Karen and paired the classrooms together to fill Easter baskets as a class project. Although she is retired, she still brings her extended family to fill baskets yearly. She supports Alleluia Baskets throughout the year; in particular, she hosted an Usbourne book party to raise $1,000 worth of free books this summer. Mary loves to spend time with her husband, children, grandchildren, and extended family. She loves what Alleluia Baskets does and says it is an honor to be a small part of the large servitude.

Did You Know?

Did you know that Alleluia Baskets relies completely on generous donors? Whether it be giving of time to volunteer, monetary donations, donating basket items, or prayers, Alleluia Basket's mission is not be possible without donors. It is never too late to join our mission of helping others smile on Easter! Go to our website to learn more about how to donate. We are so thankful to our past, current, and future donors!
