Why We Serve

"I needed to read this card today, will keep it as a reminder."

-Teenage Boy Recipient 2021

Each basket has this card attached to it.

Did You Know?

Did you know that Alleluia Baskets started with a classroom of volunteers? Now Alleluia Baskets has hundreds of volunteers that help to create baskets for others each year! This year we are projected to reach 10,000 people, however our mission is not possible without the help of others! Consider volunteering to help make a positive impact on our community!

Meet the Volunteer

Jean Weiner

Jean found Alleluia Baskets on Facebook and has been a dedicated volunteer for the last 3 years. She has brought groups from her church, Church of the Shepherd in St. Charles to volunteer.

Jean connected Alleluia Baskets with her Let's Crochet & Knit group and has shared her crocheting skills through making pillows, blankets, and stuffies. Jean is an avid marketplace shopper, as she helps us to find the best deals. Most importantly, she is always smiling and has a heart for helping others! Thank you Jean!
